Sydney Brinker was awarded the first installation of the Eta Pi scholarship. Claire Vencill visited as an LC from Kappa Headquarters. Our VPS, Kiana McIntosh, held biweekly sisterhood events including spin classes at Equinox, a Friendsgiving in the house, pumpkin painting, and events with our B+ heroes Peyton and Aubrey. Our events chair Lizzie Pettee held 3 date parties, a semi-formal, and a formal. We held a successful Founder's day hosted by the Education chair, Elizabeth Wilkinson in October and initiated 37 new members of the Lambda class in November. Our chapter GPA is 3.44.

Describe the recent changes on campus and describe the chapter's overall nature.

On the NYU campus, changes in fraternity life have included the removal of several fraternities from campus. Several fraternities, FIJI, Pike, (2018) and DKE, have been kicked off of campus, Zeta Psi, Kappa Sig are on probation, leaving DLP, Lambda Chi and Sig Ep with no probationary actions. With relation to Kappa, these changes mean that our sisters are no longer able to mingle in groups with the fraternity men of FIJI, Pike, and DKE as they continue to run underground. NYU FSL and Kappa headquarters have been made aware of this and our sisters are also aware of these changes and how to avoid any disciplinary action.
